

00:38 Paite-Lamka Tuailaite (2 times)

Translation: Youths of Lamka (crowd cheering on being called as Youths of Lamka)

00:50 Paite: Hongpai khawmnai unla (2 times)

Translation: Come closer (speaker indicating the youths to come closer towards the stage)

00:53 Paite: Huaizohchiang in ah i pan ding ahi

Translation: And then we shall begin (The speaker mentioned we shall begin as an indication to begin the program)

00:55 Paite: Hon Pitou Lai unla' n (repeating it a couple of times)

Translation: Keep coming forward (addressing the crowd)

01:23 Crowd (In Paite): Hat Un. Hang Un

Translation: Be Strong. Be Brave.

01:28 Paite: Vest silhtengteng in ah hankuang te mai ah ki line ding inah iki theihsak ahi.

Translation: Whoever is wearing are requested to please come forward and line up in front of the coffins (coffins were laid to depict the fallen heroes that have lost their lives during the conflict).

01:33 Paite: Vest silh lou khalou mipite stage lam hon phatou un.

Translation: Those of you without a vest, please come towards the stage.

01:40 Paite: Vest silh kha tangval te hankuang lam ah hon ki line unla, adanf ten, hialam ah hon pha you un.

Translation: To the men who wore vests, please line up in front of the coffin. Those of you without vests, please come towards this side (which was the stage).

01:52 Paite: Vest silh te 3 lines. Adangte huaibang inah line khat hialam, line khat in huailam ah.

Translation: People wearing vests, in 3 lines. Likewise, those without vest one line this side & another line over that side.

02:10 Paite: 3 lines in ah (The speaker was just directing the crowd a couple of times to be in 3 lines as addressed earlier)

02:57 Paite: Hon paitou lai vuau.

Translation: Please keep coming forward (This, because the youths have reached and are just coming in towards the venue).

02:58 Paite: I pasalte kon vaidawanna un kon sawm uh ee...

Translation: To the Men - In a gesture of warm welcome, we extend our invitation to you.

03:05 Paite: Tu innah program ipan ding wa, Pithu Thianmang muangin chih laa isa phawt ding wa. Unanu Mangnunmawi kagenahi.

Translation: Let's begin our program now with the song " Pithu Thianmang muangin (Trust in the Lord that Leadeth) & I ask our sister Mangnunmawi (The singer).

This is a program held at Wall of Remembrance, Tuibuong, Lamka, which is a place dedicated to our victims who died and some of our youths were wearing vests as a depiction of them protecting the land and the fallen heroes.